A company of the Expertis Gruppe.

OUR OFFER

Specially trained case managers support you individually and sustainably in solving problems, so that you can (re)gain a foothold in the labour market.

It is important to us to provide you with concrete support in a confidential, appreciative and respectful manner.

We build on your strengths and resources and complement these with our expertise and our network of contacts.

Our advisory and support services are entirely free of charge for you.

INFORMATION AND GUIDANCE

Drawing on many years of experience and supported by experts, we offer you guidance on the following topics:

- Psychosocial counselling
- Work and training
- Health – therapies – fitness for work
- Legal matters
- Housing
- Debt – finances
- Childcare

PERSONAL ONE-ON-ONE GUIDANCE

Your personal advisor will support you for up to six months through individually arranged one-on-one meetings.

Together with you, we will:

- create an overview of your personal life situation
- develop next steps, goals and perspectives
- contact the relevant support services and experts
- develop ideas for career prospects or training pathways
- update your application documents and prepare you optimally for job interviews

Accompanying and outreach counselling is available if needed. Once you take up employment, we offer follow-up support.
